Welcome to the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC)!

Seize the opportunity to invest in the vibrant future of an emerging giant.

Who We Are

KONGO TOUT PUISSANT is a dynamic platform bringing together Congolese agri-food entrepreneurs, united to promote the richness and diversity of food products from the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC).

Our mission is to create international business opportunities and foster inclusive economic growth.

This initiative is represented in Canada by Mayamba Consulting, led by Mrs. Odette Mayamba, and in the DRC by the following business leaders:

- Mr. Laurent Lokwa, Kitoko Multi-Services
- Mrs. Gisèle Tabou, Ail We Drop Food

Mayamba Consulting supports businesses in achieving sustainable growth and digital transformation.

Our core values include integrity, innovation, and community engagement.

Our Mission

Visibility and Access to the International Market

SIAL Canada is the largest food innovation trade show in North America, bringing together over 1,000 exhibitors from 44 countries and attracting more than 21,000 professional visitors from 77 countries.

For Congolese businesses, it is a unique opportunity to showcase their products to an international audience, establish business partnerships, and enter new markets.

A New Generation of Products Made in Congo

OUR VISION

To position Congo as a key player in the global agri-food industry while building a strong national supply chain, including:

- Local processing and packaging infrastructure
- Export standards, branding, and certifications
- Community empowerment and economic growth

We believe in building from the ground up, with women, youth, and rural entrepreneurs leading the way.

Our Product Catalogue

- We are proud to showcase five unique Congolese products, ready for export:
- Sinda Ginger Juice – Aromatic ginger beverages blended with tropical fruits (pineapple, lemon, passion fruit)
- Mbio by Malaika Bio – Sun-dried and packaged leafy vegetables (cassava leaves, amaranth), harvested and dried naturally without additives
- Premium Congolese Coffee – Grown in the volcanic highlands of Eastern Congo, offering rich aromas and fruity notes
- Baobab Fruit Powder – A superfood rich in natural fiber, calcium, and vitamin C, perfect for smoothies, energy bars, and more
- Mayombe Ginger & Cocoa Powder – Locally farmed and processed for teas, cooking, and wellness applications
- We Drop Fresh Garlic – Freshly harvested garlic from Congo, matured to perfection, ideal for cooking, marinades, and natural medicinal uses. Carefully packaged to preserve its freshness and properties.

Taste the Congo, Shape the Future

Based in the Democratic Republic of Congo, Kitoko Multi-Services (KMS) transforms locally grown organic ginger and spices into crispy chips and refreshing Sinda beverages, including Sinda-Tangawiss and Sinda-Pineapple.

By promoting local resources, we support farmers and boost the rural economy.

Our products, loved for their unique and authentic flavors, are ready to conquer international markets.

Join us in bringing the true taste of Congo to the world.

WE DROP
FOOD

The logo for 'We Drop Food' is centered within a yellow oval. The text 'WE DROP' is on the top line and 'FOOD' is on the bottom line, both in a bold, blue, bubbly font with a white outline. The background of the oval is a yellow field of sliced garlic.

The Finest Congolese Garlic

Basée en RDC, l'entreprise We Drop cultive et transforme de l'ail 100 % local, biologique et savoureux. En collaborant étroitement avec des agriculteurs congolais, nous valorisons les ressources du pays tout en soutenant les communautés rurales. Leur ail, reconnu pour sa qualité et sa richesse aromatique, séduit déjà les palais locaux – et bientôt ceux du monde entier. Nous sommes prêts à faire découvrir l'excellence de l'ail congolais à l'international.

Congolese Cayenne Pepper

Innovation Through New Products

Local Growth

The demand for natural and locally sourced products is booming in the DRC.

Our juices, baobab coffee, garlic, vanilla, and other treasures of the land meet the expectations of customers seeking quality, health, and authenticity.

With targeted distribution, we are strengthening our national presence — building a solid foundation for both export expansion and local development.

Global Market Expansion

Our natural and authentic products — baobab coffee, tropical juices, garlic, vanilla, and more — align perfectly with global trends toward healthier eating.

With a focus on quality, traceability, and rich local storytelling, we are winning over organic distributors and specialty markets.

International markets represent both a major growth opportunity and a showcase for Congolese expertise.

New Product Development

We innovate with recipes featuring moringa, vanilla, tamarind, turmeric, and more.

Our products are designed to be natural, export-ready, and aligned with global wellness trends, while celebrating the richness of the Congolese terroir.
